Refud of ticket money to Passengers

*211. SHRI CHIMAMBHAI MEHTA:
SHRI SARADA MOHANTY:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Railways ' refund ticket money to passengers, when the trains are delayed beyond the time of the journey period, " if not, the reasons therefor;

(b) whether it is a fact that the delay in scheduled timings occurs due to maintenance faults; and

(c) if so, what measures Government are taking in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MALLIKARJUN): (a) No, Sir. Since the passengers have availed of the service by performing the journey for which a ticket was issued, there is no reason for grant of refund of fares due to late running of trains.

(b) The delay in scheduled timings occurs not only due to maintenance faults, but also on account of reasons beyond railways control.

(c) In so far as maintenance of equip ments are concerned utmost stress is laid on preventive maintenance for which detailed schedules have been laid down. Their implementation is being constantly monitored. Also proper procedures have been drawn up to deal wttn\ situations when faults arise so as to re-duce delays in scheduled timings.
